

Original Key: E

I Know I Have A Heart Cinderella

[VERSE 1]

Thought I was too smart for this
Not a sucker for a kiss
Turned my back to the world
I was protected. I was so not naïve with no heart on my sleeve
Always walked out before.
I was rejected.

[PRE-CHORUS]

Fairytales are not to be believed
I blame myself if I have been deceived

[CHORUS] I was fine on my own

Made of steel, hard as stone
I know I have a heart
because you broke it.
I was so unaware that I could fall so hard
But what good is a heart
If you don't care.

[VERSE 2] Like a damsel in distress.

In a torn party dress.

Someone I never met

I was pretending

Should have known all along that I need to be strong.

For a girl who's like me

there's no happy ending.

[PRE-CHORUS]

I was not a hard one to convince.

Girls like me don't end up with a prince.

[CHORUS] Found out love is a hoax,

one of life's little jokes.

I know I have a heart

because you broke it.

And it's shattered and bruised,

and now the laughs on me

Anyone want a heart

that's barely used?

[PRE-CHORUS]

Fairytales are not to be believed

I blame myself if I have been deceived

^D [CHORUS] I was fine on my own ^G

Made of steel, hard as stone ^D

I know I have a heart ^C

because you broke it. ^D

I was so unaware ^G

that I could feel so bad, ^D ^G

but what good is a heart ^D

if you're not there? ^C ^G

Now I won't need a heart ^D

'cause I don't caaaaaaarrreeeee ^C ^G

Chords

