3. My Lullaby The Lion King 2: Simba's Pride

[ZIRA, spoken] Hush, my little one
You must be exhausted

(sung/VERSE 1)

Sleep, my little Kovu
Let your dreams take wing
One day when you're big and strong
You will be a king!

[BREAK]

[VERSE 2] I've been exiled, persecuted

Left alone with no defense
When I think of what that brute did
I get a little tense

[VERSE 3]

But I dream a dream so pretty
That I don't feel so depressed
'Cause it soothes my inner kitty
And it helps me get some rest

[CHORUS]

The sound of Simba's dying gasp
His daughter squealing in my grasp
His lionesses' mournful cry
That's my lullaby!

[VERSE 4]

Now the past I've tried forgetting
And my foes I could forgive
Trouble is, I know it's petty
But I hate to let them live

[NUKA]

So you found yourself somebody
Who'll chase Simba up a tree

[ZIRA]

Oh, the battle may be bloody
But that kind of works for me

[CHORUS]

The melody of angry growls
A counterpoint of painful howls
A symphony of death, oh my!
That's my lullaby!

[BRIDGE]

Scar is gone, but Zira's still around
To love this little lad
'Til he learns to be a killer
With a lust for being bad!

[NUKA]

Sleep, ya little termite!
Uh—I mean, precious little thing
